

THE FIRST TWO SECONDS

Nobody chose to watch your ad. These are opening shots that earn the next eight seconds. Each one is from a film we have made, or a close cousin of one.

OPEN ON MOTION

- ☐ Start mid-action: the pan is already hot
- ☐ A fall, a drop, a pour already under way
- ☐ A fast push-in that lands on the product

OPEN ON A QUESTION

- ☐ Lie about the scale: so close nobody knows what it is
- ☐ Show the inside: the product taken apart
- ☐ Start as a drawing that begins to come alive

OPEN ON A STATEMENT

- ☐ State the problem, flat, in six words
- ☐ A number that sounds wrong
- ☐ The product in a colour it should not be

OPEN ON COLOUR

- ☐ Flood the frame with the product's colour
- ☐ A hard cut between two grounds
- ☐ One moving object on a still, flat field

THE RULE

No logo, no greeting, no build-up. The brand arrives at the end, once they care.
